

Screening Knock Down the House on Netflix

Thank you for hosting a Watch Party or Community Screening of Knock Down the House! Beginning May 1, the film will be available for screenings worldwide via Netflix.

In order to screen Knock Down the House, you must have a Netflix account to screen the film. If you do not already have an account, you can sign up for a free, 30-day trial at netflix.com.

You have two options to access the film:

1. Stream the film on Netflix.

- In order to play from the Netflix platform, your home or venue must have an internet connection with at least 5 Mbps download speed. You can test the internet speed by visiting a site like fast.com. Learn more about Netflix's internet speed recommendations.
- Allow the film to load before hitting play to improve playback.
- If you are hosting a community screening, don't forget to do a tech check at your venue, with the equipment and internet connection you plan to use for your screening—ideally a week before your event.
- Problems with streaming? Consult the Netflix Help Center to troubleshoot network connection issues.

2. Download the film on the Netflix app.

- Using the Netflix app, you can download the film to play it offline. This feature is available for mobile phones (iPhones and Androids), tablets, and computers running Windows 10.
- If you are hosting a community screening, run a tech check at your venue after you download the film, using the equipment you will use during your screening—ideally a week before your event.
- Need help with the app? Learn more about the app on the Netflix Help Center.
